

communities in CONVERSATION

Rhodes College
—1848—

DIGITAL BALDWIN

PRESENTED BY

THE MEMPHIS CENTER AT RHODES

James Baldwin's work has become a touchstone in our present cultural moment. Baldwin is an intellectual forbearer for Ta-Nehisi Coates, Jesmyn Ward, and the #BlackLivesMatter movement and a key reference for post-civil rights discussions of race in America.

February 2 @ 6:00 p.m. | Reception @ 5:30 p.m.
Hardie Auditorium, Palmer Hall

Featuring Zandria Robinson, Terrence Tucker and Ernest Gibson. Each speaker will introduce, screen, and discuss a video clip of Baldwin as a means to inform, to contextualize, and to highlight aspects of Baldwin's work.

Facebook: communities.in.conversation | Twitter and Instagram: @Rhodes_CiC

SPONSORS: Academic Affairs, Memphis Center, External Affairs, Department of English, Africana Studies, Rhodes Lecture Board, the Spence L. Wilson Chair in the Humanities at Rhodes, and the University of Memphis Department of English